Ephesians 4:7-16

Conclusion 1

Every gift is the power of Christ to do what you could not do in the flesh.

Ephesians 4:7, 11-12

7 But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it...11 It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, 12 to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up.

1 Timothy 4:14

Do not neglect your gift which was given you through a prophetic message when the body of elders laid their hands on you.

2 Timothy 1:6

For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

Romans 1:11

For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established; that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith.

Mark 13:34

For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work.
